Niagara Falls, NY City Washington D.C. Spring 2022

Our 9-day trip will start in Washington D.C. and include a driving tour of the city with stops at all the monuments. You'll also tour Arlington National Cemetery, White House Visitor Center and the National Air and Space Museum.

We'll travel through Pittsburgh, PA where you will ride the Duquesne Incline and learn about the city's history.

You'll then travel through the Great Lakes port of Erie touring Erie's wine country along the way to Niagara Falls.

Once in Niagara Falls you embark on a boat cruise to the base of the falls. You can enjoy the view from both the US side and Canadian side.

Traveling to New York City, stop at Corning, NY for a tour of the Corning Museum of Glass.

Once in New York City you'll enjoy breakfast at a local diner, have a guided tour of the "Big Apple" and visit Greenwich Village, Wall Street district, Chinatown and Central Park along with the Empire State Building and 9/11 Museum & Memorial.

This trip also offers a chance to book a pre-night in Washington D.C. and/or a post night in New York City for more time to enjoy the sites.

More information on this tour to come soon, so watch our web site and this space. Travel show will be September 23rd at the Greenfield City Hall. This trip is offered with Collette Vacations and earns each person a $150 credit to be used for a future trip.

Olympic Medals for 2021

Japan is known for its technology and citizens from all over the country have donated old cell phones, computers and cameras which are being recycled and put into the Olympic Medals. The International Olympic Committee states a Gold medal must contain at least 6 grams of real Gold which is generally used just for the outside coating, most of the inside of the medal will be silver and recycled technology.

July 23 – August 8 2021 Summer Olympics Tokyo, Japan

For Olympic lovers, we've been waiting a whole year since they were originally scheduled to happen in 2020 during the pandemic and had to be postponed. Even though they are being held in 2021 everything you see in the news and television will still be calling them Tokyo Olympics 2020.

New sports this year to watch for:

- *Surfing
- *Sport Climbing (rock)
- *Karate
- *Ping Pong
- *Judo
- *3x3 Basketball

For the first time there will be mixed/coed teams for track and field events, along with mixed swimming, archery and shooting events.

Did you know the host city gets to choose what sports do and don't happen during their hosting year? For instance, Softball & Baseball are back for the first time since 2008 as they are hugely popular in Japan, but won't be included in the next Olympics in France.

Lake Anita Movies

Outdoor movies will begin May 29th and run every Saturday night at dusk, free event.

New for the Iowa State Fair

We know that our die-hard State Fair crew really missed the fair last year, but it's back better than ever with lots of new events, remodeled buildings and 63 new fair foods.

Voted best of the new fair food were:

Chicken Egg Salad w/ Indian Fried Bread
Peanut Butter & Fluff Cookie Dough
Island Noodles w/ Teriyaki Chicken

Other new fair foods included Wagyu beef hamburgers, rattle snake sausage, lobster rolls, loaded crab bites, Granny D's apple pie, crawfish boil and bacon mac dog.

Don't forget to sign up for our Iowa State Fair Motor Coach trip scheduled for August 18th. Everyone is welcome on our motor coach, so bring a friend or family member and sample some of these new fair foods.

August 5th Free Music in the Park

FNB Bank will be sponsoring Jason Reed from 4-6:30 pm on Thursday, August 5th at the Greenfield City Park. This is free entertainment, just bring your lawn chair to enjoy. There will also be Farmers Market vendors available that include food, crafts and produce. Greenfield Lions Club will also have available their famous lemon shake ups.

Our county fairs should look a little more normal this year, so plan to attend and support our local youth who work so hard all year!

Adair County Fair – July 21 thru 25th

Union County Fair – July 22 thru 27th

Cass County Fair – July 28 thru August 3rd
