National Cinema Day

Join us in celebrating National Cinema Day on Saturday, September 3rd at the Grand Theater in Greenfield. Special price of just $3 plus tax for the 7 pm showing of the new movie "Where the Crawdads Sing" (tentatively planned movie).

Based on the book the story follows an abandoned girl Kya who raised herself in the dangerous marshlands of North Carolina. For years, rumors of the marsh girl haunted Barkley Cove, isolating the sharp and resilient Kya from her community. Drawn to two young men from town, she opens herself to a new and startling world. However, when one of them is found dead, Kya immediately becomes the main suspect. As the case unfolds, the verdict as to what happened becomes increasingly unclear, threatening to reveal many secrets.

Thursday, September 15th Movie Matinee & Pancake Supper

This brand-new movie that was just released is set in 1950s London and tells the story of a widowed cleaning lady that falls madly in love with a couture Dior dress, deciding she must have one of her own. After working to raise the funds to pursue her dream, she embarks on an adventure to Paris that will change not only her own outlook -- but the very future of the House of Dior. This remake is getting rave reviews by both audiences and critics alike.

Doors to the Grand Theater open at 1:30 pm, movie begins at 2:00 pm. The first 15 people thru the door receive free admission courtesy of the First 50 Club, everyone after that gets the special matinee price of $5.35 (includes sales tax).

Don't forget to stay for the pancake supper from 4-7 pm at the old fire station on the SW corner of the town square.
